

This very group, NAB, would shudder let alone scream if any organization attempted to limit what they are able, or believe they are able to provide. Yet they seek to quell the competition. I urge the FCC to deny the NAB initiative. XM Radio is a service that is in the "free market" and sells their product which includes XM Instant Traffic and Weather. I utilize this quite often as I travel.